Mindi – The OGD have a conference line but I'm not sure what it is yet. Will you have your email up and running just before and for the meeting so I can send it to you? As a backup, is there a phone number I can call you at? If you call my office extension (x3198), it will connect to my personal mobile, so just call that if you need to reach me/have trouble connecting.

I'm aware you need the number is the point! Thanks - Chris
